

DOUDET - NAUDIN
— EN BOURGOGNE DEPUIS 1849 —

The vineyard of Pouilly-Fuissé is the most famous appellation of the cost of Mâconnais in the south part of Burgundy. This beautiful place extends on different coasts and hills like the rock of Solutré and the rock of Vergisson.

Chardonnay

Traditional with a control of the temperatures. The alcoholic and the malolactic fermentations are done in stainless vats.

Maturation in stainless vats during 10 months.

Clayey & limestone

TASTING

Limpid and brilliant, the slightly tinted pale gold colour has some green highlights.

The nose reveals, with elegance, the richness of the ripped fruits (final with some citrus aromas), some notes of almonds and a nice mineral touch. The mouth is well balanced with some freshness.

To drink young.
Temperature of Service: 12-13°C.

Multiple agreements are possible with this Pouilly-Fuissé: From an elegant aperitif to a gastronomic accompaniment: it will be advised for all fishes (a salmon cooked with a sorrel sauce for example), cooked shells and shellfish, white meats and « fat chicken » prepared with cream and mushrooms for examples. After 4 to 5 years or some soft cheeses too.
